SUBJECT = Why Successful Women Are Single

Hi {!firstname_fix},

Today we are wrapping things up with two incredibly insightful and intuitive leaders:

Camille Parrish-Sheppard

This is a wonderful interview about women who are successful in life but perhaps not so much in their relationships with men. Camille brings to the summit brilliant insights on how many successful, powerful, and business savvy women still struggle with love and relationships. She recently met and married her man and she shares the secret to her own success in love!

Camille Parrish-Sheppard is a Ph.D.(c), MBA and sought after author, speaker, The Relationship and Life Strategist™ as well as a TV and Radio Personality. She stays busy, as she is also founder and CEO of Heart Speaks Publishing. Camille is one of the foremost authorities committed to teaching and empowering women to make a clear vision so they can breakthrough and live the life they've always wanted.

Debbianne DeRose

I loved this interview because Debbianne brings much needed levity to the world of metaphysics and spirituality. She has a special knack for explaining esoteric concepts in a very down-to-earth, practical and light-hearted way. She is the author of eight empowering, humorous books including “How I Met the Man of My Dreams: a Guide to MANifesting® Yours”. In her interview she breaks down “MANifesting” into an easy set of steps so you can understand how to start “MAN-ifesting your man right now!

She insists that we need to “en-lighten up” and laugh about it all. She also insists that life on earth is a voluntary game we came to play in order to expand our consciousness and grow into more of our true Self.
